

TOP 20 TRAINING

“Willow Sweeney’s Top 20 training is everything it promises to be - and more. It’s hilarious, entertaining, and, most importantly, deeply reflective. It teaches emotional-social and professional practices that are useful not just in the workplace, but throughout your entire life.”

- Jessica Cimino,

Assistant Principal, Las Vegas, Nevada

“Working with Willow Sweeney from Top 20 Training has truly changed my life! I’ve listened to her powerful insights more than 10 times because they resonate with me and help me grow both personally and professionally. With her humor like Carol Burnett and wisdom like Oprah Winfrey, she inspires my staff to “stay above the line” and create a positive culture, reminding us all that it starts with being role models ourselves. Truly, “save your day” and see Willow!”

-Tamara Brooks,

Principal Hillsborough County Public Schools
Tampa, Florida

Before launching Top 20 Training, Willow, coached and taught high school social studies. With a background in education, Willow has a profound understanding of the challenges faced by both students and educators.

Her workshops and seminars are renowned for their engaging and interactive nature, leaving participants with actionable insights and renewed motivation. Willow’s expertise extends beyond the classroom; she also works with corporate teams, community groups, and individuals, helping them to unlock their potential and achieve their goals

Willow’s commitment to personal growth and development is evident in her collaborative work at Top 20 Training. She has co-authored several books and developed programs that address critical areas of Thinking, Learning, and Communicating.

“Willow makes people feel seen and connects them to what matters in work and life. She accomplishes this through stories, often funny and self-deprecating, that entertain and encourage others to be their better selves. Willow’s content is applicable, memorable and easy to apply in any setting.”
